Attendance Logs

Gain real-time insights into your employees' Time & Attendance data.

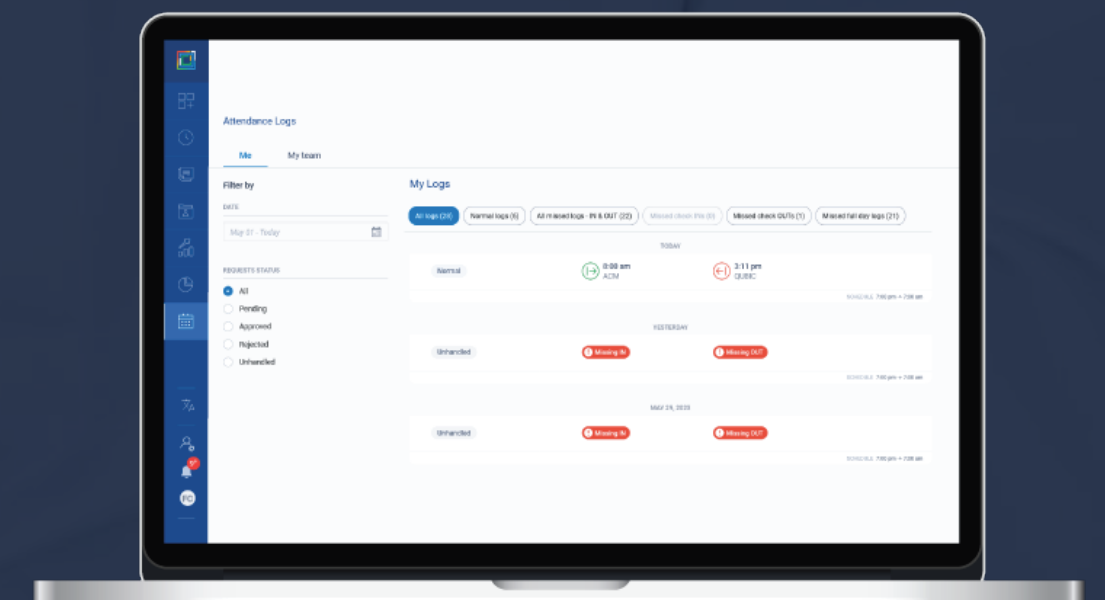

The attendance log is an essential tool to keep track of employee attendance and punctuality. It includes detailed records of arrival, departure, absences, and tardiness. Employees can access it through a self-service portal to review their attendance and identify missing entries. This feature promotes accountability, transparency, and enhances overall workforce management and productivity.

Timesheet Allocation:

Track productivity and manage resources by allocating work hours efficiently with timesheets.

Timesheet allocation refers to the process of assigning and recording the time spent by employees on various projects and tasks within an organization. It's crucial for project costing, offering insights into resource utilization. Accurate allocation enables informed decisions on staffing, budgeting, and resource distribution, enhancing overall organizational efficiency.
